

TATLER

Wine Tasting Notes

JAMES HALLIDAY 2010 AWARDS TATLER 5 RED STARS

“Outstanding winery regularly producing wines of exemplary quality & typicity”

Tatler Frizzante 2010 Semillon

Classic Hunter Semillon given a “Carmen Miranda” sparkle. Serve ice cold. Perfect after a hard rhumba!

“The Tatler” 2008 Sparkling Chardonnay / Pinot Noir

NEW RELEASE

The sparkling wine was made from chardonnay & pinot noir grown in the Lovedale region of the Hunter Valley. Light straw in colour, it has delicate aroma's of apple and strawberries with hints of freshly baked bread. A crisp fresh palate and lively acid backbone make this an ideal aperitif style, zesty in the mouth & dry on the finish.

Tatler Nigel's Semillon 2010

Silver Medal Winner - H.V. Boutique Winemakers Show (2010)

This Hunter Semillon was grown in the Lovedale region. Straw green in colour, with aromas of lemongrass, lime and lifted flinty overtones make this a classic Hunter Semillon. Crisp and lively, with great minerality and length of flavour, perfect with all fresh seafood.

Tatler “Over The Ditch” 2009 Semillon/Sauvignon Blanc

James Halliday 2011 94/100

The idea for “Over The Ditch” developed at Tatler Wines. Directors Spiro & Theo Isakidis are New Zealanders by birth, and the idea to blend their old homelands great Sauvignon Blanc and new homes best Semillon was an opportunity that had to be taken.

Straw green in colour, with intense aromas of gooseberry, passionfruit and citrus. A crisp and lively wine displaying vibrant exotic fruit flavours well balanced by mineral like acid providing a long clean finish.

Tatler Dimitri's Paddock Chardonnay 2009

James Halliday 2011 92/100

Barrel fermented in a selection of new & aged French oak for 10 months, this classic Chardonnay is pale straw in colour, showing ripe stone fruit flavours, with integrated spicy oak. A tightly structured yet expressive chardonnay with a well balanced long crisp finish.

Tatler Rita's Rose 2009

Bronze Medal Winner - H.V. Boutique Winemakers Show (2010)

Blend of Hunter Shiraz/Viognier, fermented in stainless steel and bottled early to retain freshness of fruit. Pale cherry red with mixed berry fruit and a spicy toffee apple lift on the nose. A soft and fruity style with loads of sweet berry flavours balanced by a touch of savoury spice. Perfect with Asian or Mediterranean food.

TATLER

Wine Tasting Notes

“The Tatler” Sparkling Shiraz Cuvee

NEW RELEASE

This rich sparkling shiraz was made from Hunter Valley & McLaren Vale fruit from the 2004 and 2005 vintages. Aged for over 24 months in new and old oak, this wine has great depth of flavour and is perfect with duck, all game dishes or any special occasion.

Tatler Archies Paddock Shiraz 2009

This classic Hunter Shiraz, with generous sweet mid palate fruit, was aged for 15 months in French and American oak barrels prior to bottling. Deep ruby red in colour, with a nose of dark berry fruits and well integrated savoury oak, make this Shiraz the perfect partner for red meat and cheese. Enjoy now, or over the next five to ten years with careful cellaring.

Tatler “The Filibuster” Shiraz 2009

NEW RELEASE

Filibuster - ‘A long speech given to force a decision against the majority’

Canberra Shiraz, aged for 18 months in new & 1 year old French & American oak barrels, leads to a beautiful medium bodied red. With aroma’s of wild berry & spicy pepper complemented by a soft velvety palate, and rich tannins. This wine proves that some good things do come out of Canberra!

Tatler The Nonpariel Shiraz 2009

NEW RELEASE

The “Nonpariel” is only released in years when conditions and selected fruit is suitable. Exceptional growing conditions in 2009 allowed for this release. Made from individually selected fruit parcels from the Hunter Valley (60%) and McLaren Vale (40%), and matured in brand new French 500L puncheons for 18 months before careful bottling. Rich ruby red in colour, with ripe blackberry, plum and earthy aromas, well supported by juicy tannins makes this wine a worthy addition to any cellar.

Tatler “The Sticky” Botrytis Semillon 2008

James Halliday 2010 92/100

Silver Medal Winner - H.V. Boutique Winemakers Show (2008 & 2009)

“Deep gold; vibrant orange, lemon and cumquat zest flavours; zingy acidity balancing and lengthening the palate. Drink 2013.” James Halliday 2010.

Tatler “Over the Bitch” Tawny Port

A complex blend of red grapes make for a rich and interesting tawny port with real fruit cake characters and length. The perfect way to forget a “bitch of a day”. (or anything else!)

JAMES HALLIDAY 2010 AWARDS TATLER

